

Energy Bullet Points

Actionable real-time information on oil, gas & power markets

MNI Energy service offers real-time, actionable intelligence and insight on global oil, gas and power markets, delivered in concise bullet point format, either via the MNI website, Bloomberg or the ICE platform. It is complemented by our email service, which provides weekly analysis of the energy sector, market roundups ahead of each regional trading session, as well as comprehensive previews of all OPEC meetings. Our Oil, Gas and Power team includes former energy traders, industry experts, political risk analysts and macroeconomists, with full analyst interaction available.
